Letter From the Hon. J. J. Middleton, of such Carolina.—Happy effects of R. R. Resolvent, on memas, a negro on Mr. Middleton's plantation. Read the Middleton's plantation accurred in market district, far from my residence, and I did not with the Middleton's plantation occurred in an of the Middleton's plantation of the Middleton's the propress of the cure. All that I can testify to is a very remarkable recovery of a noor fellow who had for a releve month or more been in a most deplorable condition on a scrofulous affection which seemed to have hopelessly velved his entire system. When I visited the plantation March, 1862, he was reduced to the most pitiable state in high I ever saw a human being, and the medical attendant the plantation seemed to regard the case as utterly hopes. Saraparilla and Iodine of Saraparilla, &c., &c., had we tried in vain for several months, and the poor patient at become a most loath some object, and thus continued all July or August last when our manager, as a last rewree, resolved to use your "Renovating Resolvent". The stieu of this remedy was so salutary and so prompt that in anuary last, to my great surprise, Thomas (the invalid) ame to exhibit himself, to all appearance perfectly cured by your invaluable medicine. I saw him again in February and March, and he was well and at his work as usual, Under these circumstances I can have no doubt of the Beney of your Resolvent; and I cheerfully testify to its aving, to the best of my knowledge, and belief, restored to alkh the most wretched sufferer from disease that I ever sheld. I remain, sir, very respectfully, your obedient server.
